

Submissions for The MathMate

Submissions for The MathMate should be no more than 15 pages in length, not counting cover page, abstract, references, tables, and figures. Submissions of more than 15 pages will be reviewed at the discretion of the editorial board. Submissions should conform to the style specified in the Publications Manual of the American Psychological Association (6th ed.). All submissions are to be emailed to MathMate@scctmconference.org as attachments with the completed Submission Coversheet as page 1 and the article starting on page 2.

Submitted files must be saved as MSWord, RTF, or PDF files. Pictures and diagrams must be saved as separate files and appropriately labeled according to APA style. Copyright information will be sent once an article is reviewed but authors should not submit the same article to another publication while it is in review for The MathMate.

South Carolina Recertification Credit

According to the SC Department of Education Renewal Credit Matrix \(pdf\), (see top of page 127) the primary author of a referred journal article can earn 60 renewal credits.
